

The Daily Courant.

Friday, August 20. 1708.

From the Paris Gazette, dated Aug. 18.

Rome, July 21.

THE Count de Caunitz, Auditor of the Rota for the German Nation, having receiv'd a Courier from Vienna, immediately caus'd to be distributed to all the Cardinals, except those who are in the Interest of the Crowns of France and Spain, a Circular Letter from the Emperour, with a Memorial in the form of a Manifesto, setting forth the Emperour's Pretensions. That Memorial attacks the temporal Power of the Pope and of the Cardinals, arguing that if the Court of Rome pretend to exercise that Power over the antient Donations granted to the Church by the Emperours, those Donations are null, because they were made without the Consent of the Empire. A Congregation of State has been held on this Affair, in which it was debated whether it was suitable to the Dignity of the Pope and of the holy See to answer such Writings, and what kind of Notice ought to be taken of them: But because of the Difficulty and Novelty of the Case, no Resolution is yet resolv'd thereon. The Pope has written to the Bishops of the Kingdom Naples, to proceed to fulminate the Censures of the Church against all the Officers and others who shall concern themselves directly or indirectly in the Sequestration (order'd by the Archduke) of the Ecclesiastical Revenues of that Kingdom belonging to absent Foreigners. The Process against the Abbot Rivarola, a Genoese, is continu'd with Rigour: Among his Papers which were seiz'd, were not only several abusive Pieces against the Pope, but likewise Proofs of his Intelligence with his Holiness's Enemies.

Venice, July 28. They write from Milan, that the Marquis de Prie the Emperour's Commissioner, was return'd thither, after having in vain solicited the Legate of Ferrara to perswade the Pope not to have Recourse to Arms, tho' the Imperialists have taken fast Footing in a Country of which he was in peaceable Possession, without making any previous Demand, and without any Declaration of War. In the mean time Affairs grow more and more imbroil'd, and the Emperour has openly discover'd his Designs by a Letter written to the Cardinals to justify his Enterprizes: As also by a Manifesto, in which he declares the Censures of the Pope denounc'd against those who oblig'd the Ecclesiasticks of Parma and Piacenza to pay Contributions, to be null; alledging they are Fees of the Empire, not of the Church, and adding in express Terms, that he is resolv'd to assert the Rights of the Empire in Italy, over every thing which cannot be prov'd by authentick Donations to have been granted away by the Emperours his Predecessors, all such being to be accounted Usurpations from the Empire. Thus Possession for several Ages is to avail nothing, and he neither excepts the Territories of the Pope, those of the Republick of Venice, nor those of the Duke of Savoy and of other Princes and Republicks of Italy: In Consequence of these Declarations, the Duke of Parma has been warn'd to pay Homage for his Dominions to the Emperour within 15 Days, on Pain of Confiscation. These Novelties disturb all Italy. The Republick of Genoa are Arming as well as the Pope, and there is ground to believe that by their Example others will arm, to defend their Liberty.

From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated Aug. 24.

Rome, Aug. 4. The Court have dispatch'd several Couriers this Week; and continue to take proper Measures for setting on foot a considerable Body of Forces. 'Tis reported it has been resolv'd in a Congregation held in the Palace of Cardinal Carpegna, that in return to the Emperour's Circular Letter, an Answer shall be dispatch'd in the Name of the Sacred College; and that the Opinion of several Cardinals is to answer succinctly to the Reasons alledg'd in the Manifesto of his Imperial Majesty. 'Tis also under Deliberation, what Method to take with respect to the collating of Bishopricks, Abbeyes, Pensions, and other Benefices in the Dominions of the Emperour and those possess'd by King Charles III. General Marfigli return'd hither Yesterday from viewing some maritime Places and the Frontiers of the Kingdom of Naples. He has likewise survey'd the Arms that are in the Vatican and in the Castle of St. Angelo; and is preparing to set out speedily for Ferrara. The Abbot Rivarola, who was put to the Rack on an Accusation of having written scandalous Satyrs and of some other Crimes, was at last condemn'd to Death by the Inquisition; and Yesterday he was degraded; and this Morning beheaded.

Madrid, July 31. The War that is near breaking out in Italy between the Pope and the Emperour, is look'd upon as very advantageous to this Court, as well with respect to the Diversion it will give the Enemy, as because it will render the Imperialists unable to attack Sicily. The Nuncio having deliver'd a Letter to the King, in which the Pope acquaints him that he is resolv'd to defend his Right by Force of Arms, and to Engage the Princes of Italy to assist him; adding that he will never acknowledge any other King of Spain than Philip V; his Majesty has return'd an Answer, in which 'tis said he promises on his Part to second with all his Power the good Intentions of his Holiness, as far as the Present Circumstances of Affairs will permit. Some Days ago the Court receiv'd the News of the Battle fought the 11th of this Month near Audenarde in Flanders, to the Advantage of the Allies; which has caus'd no little Consternation here, notwithstanding the Pains taken by the Court to extenuate the Particulars, and to make this Action pass for a Skirmish with a Detachment of the Duke of Vendome's Army. The Siege of Denia is put off to the Month of September next: It will be undertaken by the Chevalier d'Hasfelt with 6000 Men, and 7 Battalions which are to come from Estramadura. Some Days ago arriv'd a Courier from Seville, with Advice, that a Body of Portuguese, of 9000 Foot and 3000 Horse, were advanc'd to Gibraltor within 14 Miles of Seville: Another Courier is come since, to inform the Court that this Body was not so strong as was at first believ'd; yet that they had carried off all the Corn which was in and about Gibraltor, and 3000 Pieces of Eight in Money; and also took with them some Hostages of that Place, the Inhabitants having agreed to pay 10000 Pieces of Eight for Contributions, at several Terms. The Duke d' Ossuna, who march'd the 24th towards Seville with with 2 Regiments of Horse, could not oppose this Incursion.

Paris, August 17. The last Letters from Rome tell us the Pope continues with Vigour his Preparations of War, in order to oblige the Imperialists to retire out of his Territories. 'Tis reported some Potentates of Italy will assist his Holiness. The King has offer'd the Pope 5 Men of War to transport his Troops from Avignon: And 'tis said his Majesty offers likewise to send him 6000 Men, which are to be imbarc'd at Toulon.

London, August 20.

Yesterday being appointed for a general Thanksgiving for the Victory of Audenarde, it was observ'd with the usual Solemnity: Her Majesty came to St. Paul's, where Te Deum was Song; &c.

A Rhinoceros about 20 Years since was brought from Siam in India, which in Strength and Colour is like the Elephant, upon his Nose groweth a large and sharp Horn, on its Back are many Divisions like the Shells of a Tortoise, its Skin is so extreme hard no Dart can pierce it, each Foot hath 3 Hoofs. In a word, this admirable Creature, from the Tip of its Nose to the End of its Tail, differs from all other Beasts, except only in Eyes and Ears. To be seen with its Skeleton, near the Falcon on the Road to Hyde-Park, turning down to May-Fair.
